FOSS A WINNER IN BAY STATE

Re-Elected over Frothingham by 4,000 Plurality.

REPUBLICANS CONFIDENT EARLY

G. O. P. Wins Lower Branch of Legislature in New York State—Judges Elected in Chicago from Both Tickets.

Boston, Nov. 8.—Strenuous efforts on the part of the Republicans of this state failed to bowl Eugene Foss out of the governor's chair.

He was re-elected by a plurality of from 4,000 to 6,000 over Louis Frothingham, who has been lieutenant governor for the past three years. To add to the chagrin of the Republicans, who believed from the early returns that the whole ticket had been elected, there is every indication that David I. Walsh, the Democratic nominee, has been elected lieutenant governor over Robert Luce.

Foss carried Boston by a plurality of about 22,000, as against 27,700 last year. The 321 towns in the state gave Frothingham a lead of about 18,000 over Foss, but the Republican nominee fell slightly behind in the thirty-two outside cities. The result was a great surprise to the Republican leaders and not a few of the Democratic managers were astonished.

REPUBLICANS MAKE GAIN

Capture Lower House of New York Legislature.

New York, Nov. 8. — The Republicans in the state captured the only redoubt that it was possible to capture in this election.

The only state ticket in the field was the assembly ticket for election to the lower house of the state legislature. A year ago—the Democratic landslide year—the New York assembly stood 87 Democrats to 63 Republicans. The returns indicate that this year the assembly will stand: Republicans, 95; Democrats, 5; Socialists, 1.

This means a rebuke, apparently, to the administration of Governor Dix. The most interesting features of the election in the state are the victory of the Socialists in the municipal election in Schenectady and the defeat of Thomas Mott Osborne, one of Governor Dix's most intimate friends, for mayor of Auburn.

In New York city there has been a final fight between the allied forces of the Republican party and those following the lead of William R. Hearst against a straight-out Tammany judiciary and county ticket, and Tammany wins by from 25,000 to 35,000.

RHODE ISLAND REPUBLICAN

Pothier Is Re-Elected Governor and Legislature Is Republican.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 8. — Indications point to a complete Republican victory in Rhode Island by pluralities considerably larger than a year ago. For the position of governor, the most closely contested on the ticket, Governor Aram J. Pothier has made net gains of several hundred over Lewis A. Waterman, his Democratic opponent, as compared with the figures a year ago. The rest of the Republican ticket is easily ahead of the Democratic slate, and elected by pluralities running into the thousands.

In the general assembly the Republican gains have been notable.

NO CHANGE IN NEW JERSEY

Governor Wilson Has Republican Legislature on His Hands.

New York, Nov. 8.—New Jersey elected eight senators out of a total of twenty-one and a complete lower house. In the counties where there were senate contests, the Republicans had six members in the present senate and the Democrats two.

The returns indicate the election of six Republicans and two Democrats, making no change in the present complexion of the senate, the Republicans retaining control of the upper house by 12 to 9.

This means that Governor Wilson will have a Republican legislature on his hands.

KENTUCKY LANDSLIDE

Democracy Takes Governor and Everything in Sight.

Louisville, Nov. 8. — An eleventh hour landslide towards the Democratic ticket in Kentucky gave James B. McCreary, the Democratic gubernatorial nominee, the largest majority that any candidate for governor has received in this state for many years.

Indications are that his majority will reach about 25,000. Both branches of the legislature will be Democratic, insuring Congressman Ollie James' election to the United States senate.

ARAM J. POTHIER

Re-Elected Governor by Rhode Island Republican.

CLEVELAND ELECTS BAKER

Democratic Candidate Ran on a Tom L. Johnson Platform.

Cleveland, Nov. 8.—The Cleveland Press estimates Newton D. Baker, Democrat, is elected mayor by 15,000 over Hogen, Republican. Baker ran on a Tom L. Johnson platform.

His chief fight was for municipal operation of the electric light utility, following the successful operation of a three-cent street car fare here for two years under public control.

Nassau County Reverses Itself.

Hempstead, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Nassau county, home district of Colonel Rooseevlt and nearly a score of other men prominent in the financial and political world, which went Democratic last year by nearly 3,000, after giving Mr. Roosevelt and President Taft pluralities of over 3,500 each, reversed itself and fell into the Republican ranks again by nearly 2,100 plurality.

EVENTS CROWD IN M'NAMARA CASES

Jury Box Filled and Peremptory Challenges Begin.

FEDERAL JUDGE GETS EVIDENCE

State Court Had Ordered State Sheriff to Hold Same, Pending Decision by State Supreme Court.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 8.—Important developments in the McNamara case are crowding thick and fast. The twelfth juror has been seated, the box filled, the premptory challenges began. The state exercised two and rested. The defense exhausted five and reserved the right to spent more. Five men remained in the box when court adjourned.

In Indianapolis Judge Anderson of the federal court ordered federal marshals to seize the books, papers and physical evidence which a state judge had ordered a state sheriff to hold until the state supreme court had decided on an appeal taken by counsel of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' association. In two hours the federal court had the evidence.

When Joseph Ford, assistant district attorney here, heard the news he said: "Good, I am glad of it."

In the near future, probably next week, the defense will file another petition for the removal of the present trial from Judge Bordwell's court.

MEN AND WOMEN DROWN

Pleasure Party Disappears While Out in an Open Launch.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 8.—Four persons who left Olympia Sunday in an open launch for a day's outing on Hartstein island, ten miles distant, are believed to have drowned in a storm.

The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Muck, Miss Gertrude Root and Arthur Kayler. A searching party from Olympia cruised about the island, but found no trace of the missing boat or its occupants.

FACTS ABOUT PROPOSED NEW SCHOOL BUILDING PRESENTED BY BOARD

TO THE TAXPAYERS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 4, YPSILANTI, MICHIGAN:—

In accordance with instructions given at the last Annual School Meeting held July 10, 1911, the Board of Trustees of School District No. 4 have prepared plans and estimates for the erection of a new school building on the Central School site and the modernizing of the Prospect School. In accordance, also, with the same resolution, on Tuesday, November 14, you will be asked to cast your ballot upon the following proposition:

Shall the Board of Trustees of School District No. 4 issue bonds of the District in the amount of $75,000, covering a period of fifteen years, for the erection of a school building and central heating plant on the Central School site and for the repair of the Prospect School?

The proposition includes three distinct projects, all, in the opinion of the Board of Trustees, of sufficient importance to warrant their asking for the sum named. These projects, according to estimates secured by the Board, represent expenditures as follows:

New building on Central site.....$58,000
Heating plant for new building and present Central School, 12,000
Repairs on Prospect School..... 5,000

The largest item of expenditure is that for the new building. This is planned to contain six class rooms and offices on the first floor; a study hall, four class rooms, and two recitation rooms on the second floor; and in the basement a gymnasium and rooms for drawing, manual training, domestic science, and sewing.

What this building will make possible:

1. The removal of the first eight grades, now occupying nine rooms, from the present Central Building.
2. Sufficient room in the new building, besides, for a kindergarten, an extra intermediate grade (now much needed), and a room for ungraded pupils.
3. A re-organization of the upper grammar grades on the departmental plan, so that pupils may advance by subjects rather than by grades.
4. The use of rooms vacated in the old building as follows:
   (1) one additional room for the Library which has outgrown its quarters;
   (2) two rooms to be thrown together for a study hall;
   (3) another laboratory occupying two rooms;
   (4) a room for commercial subjects;
   (5) an additional recitation room;
   (6) one or two rooms for future expansion.
5. Better accommodations for the high school (ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades), in which there are now too many classes containing a larger number of students than is consistent with the best results in the class room.
6. Opportunity to add courses in the high school in agriculture and commercial branches, subjects of first importaice in an agricultural community and to all students who expect to go no further with their education than the high school.
7. Better facilities for instruction in those lines,—cooking, sewing, and home-making—that make for domestic welfare.
8. Opportunity for systematic physical training in a well-equipped gymnasium and under the direction of a competent instructor.

We cannot, in a brief address, enlarge upon the different items just enumerated. We wish merely to say that we are profoundly of the opinion that the education today of the children and youth of any community is a far different matter from what it was a generation ago. Not only has the scope of school instruction been enlarged, but much more in very many ways is expected of the school today. Moreover, we believe that this will

YPSI HOSPITAL TO BE COMPLETE

A WORD FROM SCHOOL MAN WHO KNOWS

To The Editor of The Daily Press:

As Principal of the Ypsilanti high school, after spending five years and a little over at the very center of activity in the Central school building I desire to say a few words in regard to the contemplated new school building, to give some inside facts as to why the new building is a necessity, an absolute necessity and not a luxury or an extravagance. I shall say nothing as to the kind of a building. With such men on the Board of Education as we have at the present time I think we should trust to their judgment fully as to the cost and style of the building. The question at issue is, shall we have a new school building, and not shall we pay $50,000 or $65,000 for it? The question at issue is, shall we do our best by our boys and girls in providing them with the means of education or shall we do less than our best because it costs a little money?

I shall speak of conditions in the Central building. If the people of Ypsilanti would come to the building and see the school in operation I feel that the proposition for a new schoo building would carry almost unanimously. They are more than welcome to come and see for themselves. As this will be done by few the next best thing is a description by one who ought to know.

The high school is too large entirely for its quarters. There are 260 enrolled already. These 260 pupils are confined to the second floor of the three-story building. There are grade children above them and grade children below them. The schedules of classes and work are necessarily different and so the result is that when the high school children are quiet they are being bothered by the noise of the grade children and when the latter get quieted then it is in order for the high school children to change classes and make the old building ring with their footfalls and thus it goes on hour after hour and day after day. Is that conducive to your boy or your girl doing good work?

And when they pass from one room to another on this second floor (please keep in mind that the high school is confined to the second floor with the exception of one room on the third floor) the 260 boys and girls have to pass two abreast in a hallway but three feet wide when all modern high schools have hallways nearer twenty three feet wide. And along this narrow hallway are hung coats, wraps, girls' hats, etc., which are constantly being brushed off the hooks, knocked to the floor and stepped on by this crowd of 260 boys and girls. This because we have not room for cloak rooms.

On this second floor we have not room for a boys' toilet room. They must pass down stairs by the doors of the grade rooms, where pupils and teachers must be bothered by their noise. And then the building is too crowded to have a girls' toilet on the first floor with the result that children from five years of age to fifteen have to come up stairs and pass by the high school rooms and bother them. Perhaps some may think that the noise should be stopped. So far as it is possible it is, but I defy any person even with rubber shoes on to walk down or up those creaking stairs without being heard on both the first and second stories. The condition as regards toilet room accommodations is

SON ASKS INVESTIGATION

Little Evidence of Foul Play in Battle Creek Woman's Death.

Battle Creek, Mich., Nov. 8.—Prosecuting Attorney Kirschman was asked to investigate the death Sunday of Mrs. Amos Swanagan. Allegations were made by George Brown of Chicago, son of Mrs. Swanagan by a former husband, that his mother died under mysterious circumstances, but in all probability there will be no probe, since evidence of foul play is slight.

Brown claims that his mother told him Saturday that she had been given medicine which she thought contained poison. The son did not think much of this statement until the sudden death of his mother. It is not given out who obtained the medicine or who gave it to the woman, except it is said it was not prescribed by a physician.

CITY OFFICIALS GIVE OPTION ON BONDING RIGHTS

The following decision has been secured on the question as to whether the combined bond issues of the city and the school district may legally exceed the bonding limit of the city of Ypsilanti:

My opinion is that the School District's bonding and the City's bonding are separate and distinct, and thing they bond, if at all, entirely independent of each other.

PHYSICIANS PROPOSE CO-OPERATION WITH ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS SOCIETY TO INSURE CARE FOR PATIENTS

TWO BIG TAG DAYS ARE PLANNED

Thursday And Friday Will Be Sale Days-All Residents Are Expected To Contribute Liberally To Worthy Cause-Newly Planned Hospital Will Insure Expenditure Of Money In Our Home City

Since the meeting of local physicians Monday evening to arrange for the establishing of hospital facilities in Ypsilanti, it has been determined that their work may well be carried on in a cooperative way with the Anti Tuberculosis association and that instead of patients being sent out of the city in the future such accommodations will be prepared here as to warrant proper care and treatment on the hospital grounds.

The hospital is now open and in readiness to receive any cases that physicians may have. Mrs. White is in charge and her long experience practically insures success for the undertaking. The house is located at 714 Chicago avenue and it has been fitted out and arranged so that several cases may be handled conveniently at any time.

According to the proposal of physicians who have promoted the movement thus far, the adjoining grounds about the hospital building are to be appropriated for shacks in which early stages of tuberculosis coming under the care of the local association will be treated. One shack will be erected immediately and if the undertaking proves a success, as it no doubt will, other buildings will be erected as the increasing number of cases may demand.

Heretofore it has been necessary to send patients to Ann Arbor with the result of course, that funds raised here were expended in an other place. Although not a great item, this amount is worthy of consideration and more than that, the advantage of home treatment will be a material factor in favor of the movement, and it is with these facts in mind that the members of the association hope to accomplish much in way of increased finances during the two tag days, Thursday and Friday. A gratifying amount was realized last year and now that the plan is launched to have all funds expended here at home and to invest a part of the funds for local facilities, there is a general feeling that the amount realized from tag days this year should be much larger that heretofore and that at the same time it should be even more cheerfully contributed.

On Thursday various portions of the residence district of the city will be assigned women who are promoting the movement and a house to house canvass will be made for the sale of window cards. All women are urged to show their loyalty to this worthy cause by purchasing one of these cards. It will save the soliciting women much delay and annoyance if they find the money ready for them when they call at the door. The window cards or posters will be sold for amounts according to the disposition of the purchaser. Several have already been sold and the prices have ranged from 25 cents to $10. It is the aim to collect at least 25 cents for each card and as much more as residents feel that they can afford. This money as well as all that is realized from the sale of tags Friday will be turned toward the expenses of the association in caring for the needy patients and it is felt that for so worthy a purpose not a man or woman in the city will fail to contribute something. All residents can show their loyalty and if the contribution can be no more than five cents it will be appreciated and the giver may be sure that it is money unusually well invested.

NORMAL TO PLAY MID-WEEK GAME WITH DETROIT MEN

The Normal College will play the University of Detroit on the Normal Campus Thursday afternoon. This will be one of the heaviest games of the season and the Normals are in poor condition. Capt. Durgan injured his knee in Saturday's game with Battle Creek so that he has been out of practice and will probably be unable to play Thursday. Shaffer and Mitchell have also been out but they will probably be in the game Thursday.

The second team has scheduled a game with Assumption College of Sandwich, Nov. 18.

TWO YOUNGSTERS WOUNDED

Bark Riverites Victims of Supposed "Unloaded" Guns.

Escanaba, Mich., Nov. 8. — Two shooting accidents occurred at Bark river. In both cases the gun was not supposed to be loaded.

Agnes Rood, ten years old, was shot in the forehead by a playmate and seriously injured by a bullet from a 22-caliber revolver, which crashed into the frontal bone and became embedded in the tissues.

John Ohlin, a young man, was dangerously wounded in the arm by a charge of buckshot. Gustave Falk was inspecting the gun when it was discharged, the shot striking Ohlin, who was standing a few feet away.

BODY IS FOUND IN BAY

Missed Escanaba Man Believed Victim of Foul Play.

Escanaba, Mich., Nov. 8.—The body of Al. Fogarty, employed as a local canvasser by Reynolds & Reynolds, wholesale grocers, of Dayton, O., was found floating in the waters of Bay Noc by Stonington farmers. Indications lead to the belief that he was not drowned, but was the victim of foul play. There was a very pronounced bruise over the right eye and no water in the lungs. Appearances are that the body was in the water two or three weeks.

Fogarty had not been seen for about a month.

Rev. E. C. Miller, pastor of the North Baptist church, New Bedford, says that Richeson told him of the engagement several months ago and in August told him that the engagement had been broken.

The campaign of the Anti-tuberculosis society of Ypsilanti, which begins tomorrow, should be a more liberally patronized campaign than was the one two years ago, and that was quite well patronized. But the association has demonstrated during the past two years that, with a small amount of means, it has accomplished a large amount of practical good. The disease it is fighting locally, and helping in a small way to fight in the larger field of the state, is one which can be treated successfully at home, and an important part of this campaign is the educational part, which applies the ounce of prevention and saves the pound of cure later on.

As a campaign, then, fraught with very satisfactory results locally, and possessing much promise of future fulfilment, it is one which may be very appropriately viewed both as a philanthrophy and as an application of the law of enlightened self-interest. For, unfortunately for the city and the community and the next-door neighbor, anyone afflicted with the "white plague" is very likely to innocently endanger the life and health of many others. In self-defence and in furtherance of humane instincts, the labors of this society, which are being so liberally and generously expended for the good of the community, should be as liberally and generously rewarded by the community which is bound to reap the benefit.

FACTS ABOUT PROPOSED NEW SCHOOL

continue to be so, and for this reason we are led to look ahead in our planning and make provision for future needs and requirements.

There seems to be an impression that too large a sum is being asked for a building of the size of the one proposed; that it is the intention to erect a building which shall be "showy." This is far from the purpose of the Board. The matter of construction has been gone into carefully, and it is the intention to erect a building of such material and design as are consistent with good taste and wise economy. Investigation shows that the average cost of buildings of the type proposed ranges from four thousand to six thousand dollars a room, and as this building will be equivalent to at least a fourteen-room building, it will be seen that the cost is reasonable.

The second item is the central heating plant. When the proposition for a new building first came up, this feature was not anticipated. However, the following considerations have led the Board to ask for a sum sufficient to erect a plant that will heat both the old building and the proposed new building:

1. While the first cost of such a plant may seem unwarranted, it is estimated that in a long period of years the saving in fuel, janitor service, insurance, and up-keep will more than pay the initial cost.
2. Too much regard cannot be had for the safety of the hundreds of pupils who will occupy the two buildings. With the greatest care and precaution in the use of boilers and furnaces, the element of danger is never entirely absent. Flues will become defective and boilers will decay in such manner often as to defy inspection. For this reason it would seem unwise, no matter how great the saving, to place school rooms immediately over steam boilers or furnaces. One or two states have prohibited this by law.
3. The outside plant leaves more room in the building for school purposes. An inspection of the plans that have been prepared will show the widely different uses to which basement rooms are to be put.

The last item for which an appropriation is asked is the Prospect School. This should need no argument. The building was erected nearly thirty-five years ago, and, naturally, has by this time fallen into disrepair. The ventilation is almost worthless and the heating very imperfect. The stairways are steep and narrow, the plumbing unsanitary. Plans for repair contemplate an extension on the south side which will make room for a new entrance, stairways, and cloak rooms; a new heating and ventilating system; and the placing of folding doors between the two down-stairs rooms so that they can be thrown together and used for school gatherings and assemblies.

So much then for the plans of the Board, and the reasons therefor. Of no less interest, perhaps, is the question of increased taxation. In all this matter the Board has no desire to deceive or mislead the people or to conceal anything which is in the right of the people to know. For this reason the following information is given:

Assessed value of property in school district	$5,000,000.00
Bonded indebtedness of district	0.00
Amount to be raised by tax for the schools this year	22,000.00
Rate of school levy per $1,000	4.40

If bonds for $75,000 to be paid within fifteen years should be issued, the yearly school levy would necessarily be increased. Liberal estimates of the increased yearly expenditure have been made as follows:

Interest on $75,000 at 4%	$3,000
Bonds redeemed	4,000
Additional teachers	3,000
Heating and janitor service	1,200
Other unforeseen expenses	300
Total	$11,500

These estimates of increased expenditure are honestly believed to be even more than liberal. On the basis of the present valuation of $5,000,000, the school tax increased to $11,500 would represent a levy of $6.70 on $1,000, or an increase of $2.30 on the present levy. Any one can make the concrete for himself: supposing he pays taxes on $4,000 of property; his school tax, which this year will be $17.60, would become $26.80; if his property is valued at $10,000, his school tax, now $44.00, would become $67.00. Before the end of the period for which the bonds are issued, interest will have decreased to such an extent as to enable the redemption of bonds more rapidly than at the rate of $4,000 a year, so that the entire indebtedness could be liquidated in the fifteen years.

Ypsilanti's school tax has always been low as compared with other cities, due to the fact that the state through the Training School of the State Normal has taken care of a large number of children with no expense whatever to the city. What this means is shown by a comparison of school levies in different representative Michigan cities, based on figures from the last Report of the Board of State Tax Commissioners (1909).

The foregoing table has been prepared merely to show that Ypsilanti's school tax was unusually low in 1909 as compared with most of the other cities given. While the levy for this year is about 70 cents higher per thousand than in 1909, it is reasonable to assume that most other cities will also show an increase. It is also to be observed that should the contemplated building and repairs be made our school rate would still be lower than that of many cities in the state.

Such in brief detail is the proposition which is before the people. Plainly it represents a policy of advancement for which, in times like the present, no apology would seem to be necessary. Before those who are living in the present and who have a vision of the future the project pleads its own cause, and to such the issue must be left.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF TRUSTEES, DISTRICT NO. FOUR.

so far from being modern that it is painful to think of. One word more along this line, "a word to the wise is sufficient" they say, is there any man or woman that can picture any good coming from the commingling in the same toilet room of children from five to ten years of age and children from fourteen to eighteen years of age? But this is brought about by the crowding in the Central building.

We have no sort of gymnasium. We have 260 boys and girls. Advanced educators say that children are largely little animals who need plenty of play and plenty of chance to develop their bodies. Without this they are handicapped for the struggle of life. What are we doing here to give them this chance? Nothing. No room. But our neighboring towns are doing it.

We have put sewing, cooking, and manual training into the high school curriculum lately. They have proved immensely popular to the pupils and to the parents. But where do they go to get their teaching in these subjects? To the Woodruff school almost a mile away, with consequent loss of time from their school hours. On account of this they have to take the last two hours of the seven periods of the school session and hence crowd their other three or four subjects into the five hours left. This causes them a bad program of work and undoubtedly accounts for many failures.

Speaking of failures brings me to the last and most important point that I am going to make. We have not one large session room that will begin to hold those not in recitation work, those who are studying in preparation for their next recitation. Over a hundred boys and girls, every one of the seven hours of the day, are sitting in rooms close up to teachers and pupils engaged in recitation work in other subjects. Stop and think a moment what that means. Try to solve a problem in algebra while another person is striving within six feet of you to tell how much Latin he knows. Try to take a book anywhere and concentrate your mind on it while the hum of industry is going on about you. Now, while you and I are quiet, let us do a little figuring. From observation covering seven years of experience in the school room the average pupil will waste one-third of his time under such distraction. This is conservative and I believe all educators will bear me out. Each pupil has three hours in school to study and four in which to recite. Each pupil will lose one hour each day then on account of this distraction that could be overcome if we had room. Two hundred and sixty pupils will lose 260 hours each day. Each week five times that or 1300 hours. In one school years of 40 weeks the Ypsilanti High School pupils, not considering the 400 grade children, will lose 52,000 hours. How much money are those 52,000 hours worth, you who are so handy at counting things in dollars and cents?

But this is only one side of this last point. If you were a boy or girl of about fifteen how would you like to rise and recite several times a day before an audience of 50 to 80 people? Do you think you could do yourself justice? Don't you think there would be a little tendency for you to sink within yourself, to see that audience in your mind's eye look much larger than the point you were trying to express? Don't you think you might stammer, get discouraged, and sit down? Would that help you?

Fathers and mothers, taxpayers and voters, in behalf of the boys and girls entrusted to my care for a part of the time, I ask for your support to remedy the conditions that I have pictured. Prideing ourselves upon our schools as we do I have hesitated to make such a revelation but the first step toward progress always is a realization of the shortcomings of the present. Let us from now on weigh the question of our boys and girls as well as the financial part of the question before us. I am,

Sincerely yours,
F. U. QUILLIN.

Facts About Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at the time of child-birth, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when the strain is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

It isn't as though the experience came upon them unawares. They have ample time in which to prepare, but they, for the most part, trust to chance and pay the penalty.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

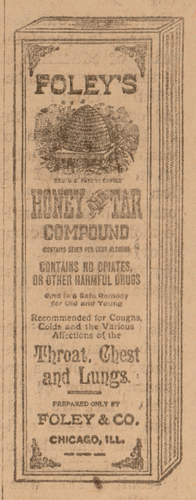
FOR CHILDREN AND GROWN PERSONS
Most effective with Croup and Whooping Cough



FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND is quick and reliable. It stops the cough by promptly healing the cause. Contains no opiates. Is indispensable in a family where there are children.

ST. JOSEPH, MICH.

Mrs. Frank Marti, 417 Church St., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound saved the life of our baby boy. He contracted a severe bronchial trouble and coughed violently and had spells of coughing and gagging and turned black in the face. I always had great faith in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and started giving it to the child. In a short time he was relieved and finally the cough was entirely stopped and the coughing and gagging spells ceased bothering him. He got well in a short time, gaining in weight and getting robust. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us trouble and this with the wonderful cure in baby's case shows its great merit. We are never without Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. We always keep it in the house."

Model "T" Torpedo Runabout, 4-Cylinder, 22½ H. P., $590.00. Fully equipped with Top, Windshield, Speedometer, Gas Lights, Generator, Etc.

High Priced Quality In A Low Priced Car

Would you use a furniture van for a hurry-up trip to the doctor's? Not if you had any other style of rig, and you would take particular pains to see that you had the other style.

Then why use your big thirty, forty or fifty H. P. touring car for the hundred and one things that a FORD RUNABOUT will do one hundred per cent better?

Your big car costs just as much to take a single passenger to the depot as it costs to take a load of seven. That's one of the chances to use a FORD and a score of more will occur to you.

The FORD car does not require an expert to drive it; every man can be his own driver. The big car you must send home to keep the driver busy or to take the wife shopping or the family calling; the little car you can have outside your office to use during the day; it is your car for business. No waiting for the driver to get it to your office.

The FORD is always ready—it takes little room and can be left on the street in front or in the alley behind your office.

This is a business proposition worth your serious consideration. You need a FORD car to complete your automobile equipment. Of the 100,000 FORDS in use, thousands are found in the finest private garages alongside of high priced touring cars, and the little car is used oftener than the big.

Immediate delivery on early orders. Write, phone or call for an hour's demonstration.

CAFE BOWLERS LOSE TO WALK-OVERS TUESDAY

The Walk-Overs gave the Travelers' Cafe a good beating Tuesday night, taking all three games by a safe margin. It seems impossible to stop the league leaders as they are doing better every time out and now have a comfortable lead over the other teams.

In the second game the Walk-Overs broke the high team score of 827 held by themselves by 6 pins. Dr. Paton was much the best of the evening, getting high score with 210 and also high average with 178. MAHOGANY
The Stuff Heirlooms Are Built From

Today many people value old Mahogany furniture made sixty or seventy years ago, more than they do new modern pieces.

Why? Years ago there was no cheap furniture made. Every thing was well built, and cos a fair price. But people today seem to demand a low first cost above all other considerations.

Generally you get just what you pay for. Good Furniture is better constructed today than it ever was, and it costs less, too.

We've just received from the leading furniture makers a bunch of attractive pieces that will grow more valuable as time goes on. They're in the Heirloom Class. Solid Mahogany, proper designs, put together to defy furnace heat. Very suitable for wedding and Holiday Gifts. A pleasure to show them.

First W. C. T. U. Meeting.

A meeting of the W. C. T. U. ladies was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Morrison, at 712 Emmet street. This was the first business meeting of the month. After the devotional exercises, which were led by Mrs. T. A. Stark, a number of plans were discussed for the coming months. It was decided that a towel shower should be given for the refreshment committee, at the home of Mrs. Anna Daschner, 211 North Summit street, on Friday evening, Nov. 17. This will be open to the public and a cordial invitation is extended to all members and any others who may be interested to attend. A program of music and reading will be presented and refreshments consisting of pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee, will be served. It was decided, also, that the union should send a gift of a number of suitable books for a much needed library at the Claflin University in South Carolina. Anyone having books of travel and good stories that they would care to donate to this good cause are asked to communicate with Mrs. Stark, 222 Summit street, who is chairman of that committee. At the close of the business meeting a good sharp talk on the need of a new high school building was given by Prof. Arbaugh. He was given a rising vote of thanks by the ladies to show their appreciation. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Olive Alban, 205 Emmet street, Thursday, Nov. 23, at 2:30 in the afternoon. A special program will be provided and refreshments will be served.

Pleasant Social Function.

A pleasant social function was the verdict of the ladies who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. D. L. Quirk, jr., Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was held in the interests of the anti-tuberculosis tag day and materials were distributed to those who have volunteered their services for Thursday and Friday. As the ladies gathered in the dining-room enjoying refreshments, there was an informal discussion of ways and means. Great enthusiasm was shown and many expressed their desire to join in the good work of fighting for the extermination of the white plague. One lady said, "Who knows but my child may be the next victim?" It is expected that our citizens will respond even more generously this year than last and that every tag will be sold on Friday.

How to be Certain of Curing Constipation

Prejudice is a hard thing to overcome, but where health is at stake and the opinion of thousands of reliable people differs from yours, prejudice then becomes your menace and you ought to lay it aside. This is said in the interest of people suffering from chronic constipation, and it is worthy of their attention.

In the opinion of legions of reliable American people the most stubborn constipation imaginable can be cured by a brief use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You may not have heard of it before, but do not doubt its merits on that account, or because it has not been blatantly advertised. It has sold very successfully on word of mouth recommendation. Parents are giving it to their children today who were given it by their parents, and it has been truthfully said that more druggists use it personally in their families than any other laxative.

Letters recently received from Mr. Chas. Linton, Bloomingdale, Mich., and Mrs. H. H. Warren, Bad Axe, Mich., are but a few of thousands showing the esteem in which Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is held. It is mild, gentle, non-griping—not violent, like salts or cathartics. It cures gradually and pleasantly so that in time nature again does its own work without outside aid. Constipated people owe it to themselves to use this grand bowel specific.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.
